

I am from the North...I am from the South...

Directions: It is time for you to be creative. Come up with an interesting way to show the differences between the North and South before the Civil War. You can draw, write a story, or do both! However, make sure that you really work hard to clearly show the differences between the two regions. Look at the rubric on the back to see how you'll be graded.

North

South

I am from the North...I am from the South...

Score	Creativity/Effort	Content
4 (Exceeding Expectations)	It is evident that the student went above and beyond to come up with a creative way to display the differences between the North and South before the Civil War. The student combined both drawings and a story/stories in his/her work.	The student went above and beyond to provide facts about both the North and South before the Civil War. There is at least four facts about each region either drawn and/or written on the sheet.
3 (Meeting Expectations)	The student displayed the differences between the North and South before the Civil War in a creative way by either writing or drawing a picture for each region.	The student did a good job providing facts about both the North and South before the Civil War. There is a total of three facts about each region either drawn and/or written on the sheet.
2 (Not Meeting Expectation)	The student attempted to display the differences between the North and South before the Civil War, but either did not complete his/her work, or did not show a lot of effort because the work did not have that many illustrations or did not have that much writing.	The student did not provide enough facts about either the North or South before the Civil War. There is a total of one to two facts about each region either drawn and/or written on the sheet.
1 (Not Evident)	The student did not attempt to complete the assignment. There is no creativity or effort shown on this assignment.	The student did not attempt to complete the assignment. There is no accurate content on the sheet.

Score	Grade
/8	